To study the expression of neurokinin B (NKB) and its putative precursors and receptors in pituitary adenomas. We studied VGF expression in 29 pituitary adenomas (8 adenoma of corticotrophs, 7 prolactinomas, 6 nonfunctioning adenomas, 4 somatotroph, 3 TSH-omas, 3 gonadotrophs, 2 ACTH-oma and 1 empty sella). The expression of the precursors of NKB (pro-NKB, pro-NKB and NKB-potentiating peptide) and of the receptor of NKB (NK3) was also investigated in the same tumors. Pre-absorption tests, reverse transcription polymerase chain reaction and immunohistochemistry were used to study the expression and cellular localization of NKB and its precursors. Immunohistochemistry revealed the presence of NKB and pro-NKB-positive cells in all pituitary adenomas. Preabsorption tests, reverse transcription polymerase chain reaction and immunohistochemistry revealed the expression of VGF in some prolactinomas, nonfunction 82157476af
